1. From Northhouse Exercise 6.1, enter your visit interpretation:
Visioning ability: 31 (very high/high/moderate/low)

2. Think about a group or organization to which you belong (or belonged in the past). Write a brief statement describing the vision you would utilize if you were the leader of this group/organization: A vision of change to the group as a whole and outcomes in the form of goals, values, and procedures. Improving the overall outcome by being more efficient. Being able to articulate change and challenges being addressed is key in putting into action the vision and having it be shared by those that are following.

3. From Northhouse, Exercise 7.1, enter your scores and interpretations below:
   - Providing structure: 15 (high/high moderate/low moderate/low)
   - Clarifying norms: 16 (high/high moderate/low moderate/low)
   - Building cohesiveness: 14 (high/high moderate/low moderate/low)
   - Promoting excellence: 20 (high/high moderate/low moderate/low)

4. Imagine you’ve been chosen to lead today’s group activity. Identify one specific action you could take to help set a positive tone for the group.
   First, lay out the structure or mission of the group activity. While laying out the structure and mission, it will give the group a clear understanding of what is expected out of them. Being able start out positive and competent as a leader will help the norms and cohesiveness to more naturally fall into place. Treating the group with respect and acknowledging the need for structure and showing an understanding.