

Words “Here are two words for you. Which one says _____?”

This intervention uses mainly melody, rhythm, tempo, form, and lyrics to facilitate eye contact. The song will be sung to client, two words will be presented to her and then therapist will sound the letter sounds slowly at first, gradually speeding up the tempo to create the word. Allowing the form to be freer with make the client more comfortable and will help facilitate eye contact.